

Anticorruption conventions

A KEY TOOL FOR CIVIL SOCIETY

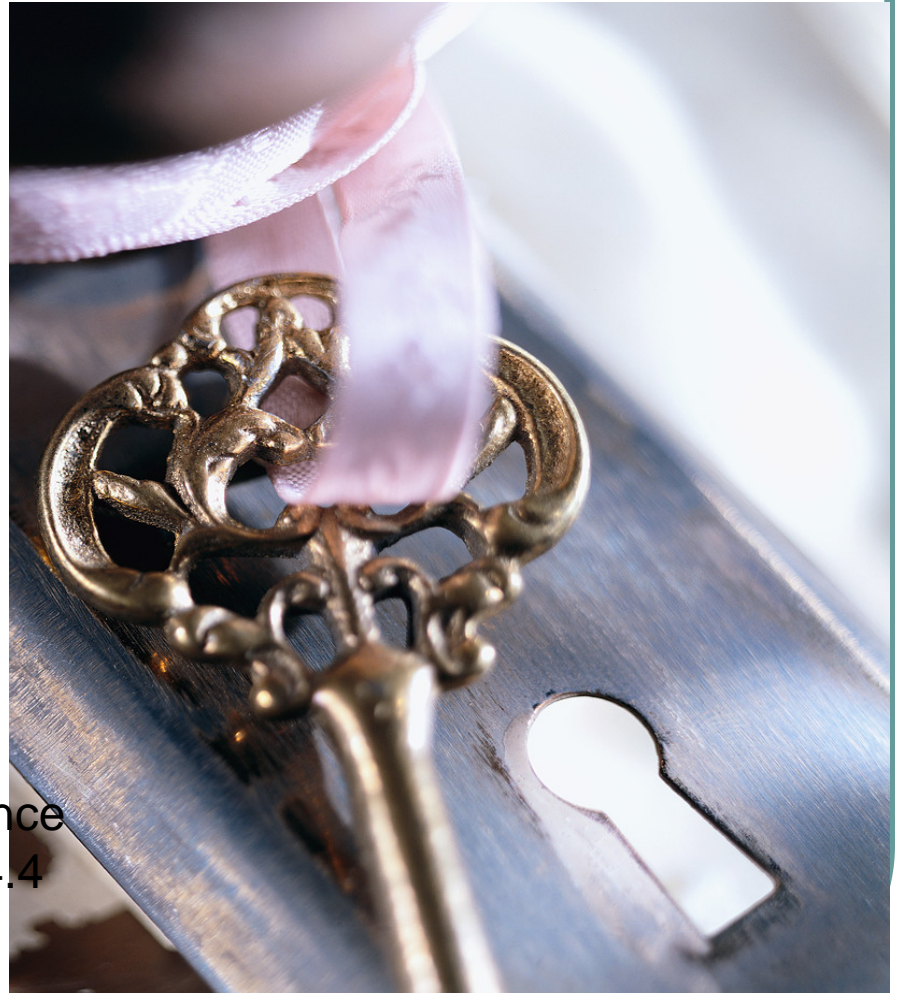

Olga Nazario, Ph.D.

Casals & Associates, Inc.

12th International Anticorruption Conference

Post-Communist Societies Workshop 4.4

November 2006/Guatemala

International conventions

- UNITED NATIONS

- CONVENTION AGAINST CORRUPTION (2003)
- CONVENTION AGAINST TRANSNATIONAL ORGANIZED CRIME

- OECD Anti-Bribery Convention (1997)

REGIONAL CONVENTIONS

- GROUP OF COUNTRIES AGAINST CORRUPTION-- COUNCIL OF EUROPE
- AFRICAN UNION CONVENTION ON PREVENTING AND COMBATING CORRUPTION
- ANTI-CORRUPTION ACTION PLAN FOR ASIA AND THE PACIFIC – ADB-OECD
- INTER-AMERICAN CONVENTION AGAINST CORRUPTION -- OAS

Why are conventions important?

- State-made International Commitments
- Transcend political parties or government in office
- Provides an anticorruption action plan
- Identifies reforms needed
- A tool for civil society

MONITORING MECHANISMS

- Self-evaluation
- Peer review
- Regional Steering Group
- Experts Review Teams
- Civil Society participation

TAKE ADVANTAGE!

LEARN AND USE THE CONVENTIONS!!!

